

"You're more than welcome"

The Hungry Monk is a more traditional outlet for Cawley Hotels and provides fine food all day in an atmosphere conducive with a typical Victorian Village Inn. The accommodation at Lochwinnoch has been designed with everyone in mind. Our bedrooms are tastefully furnished and equipped to the highest standard, with ensuite bath/shower rooms, television, hair dryer and hospitality tray.

The Hungry Monk is open daily from 10.00am serving a delicious selection of freshly cut sandwiches, Teas and a choice of freshly brewed Coffees. Our concept is to provide fine food all day, and with this in mind our Lunchstyle Menu is available from 12.00 noon until 5.00pm and our fabulous Sizzlestyle Menu from 5.00pm until late (we ask that last orders for food are placed no later than 10.00pm).

Other Cawley Hotel and Retail Outlets include the world famous "Duck Bay Hotel and Marina" located within our National Park on the Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond. The Wheelhouse on the Clyde is our 'Pubstyle' Restaurant featuring tartan carpets, oak beams and open fires serving delicious hearty meals in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere overlooking the River Clyde and historic Dumbarton Rock. The House of Darrach in the village of Gartocharn at Loch Lomond is an unrivalled retail experience offering market fresh foods, ladies fashions, gifts for every occasion, homeware, kitchenware and gardening ideas. Together with our stunning Coffee Shop and Restaurant The House of Darrach is a fabulous shopping and dining experience.

The Hungry Monk is a triple award-winning Restaurant and has earned the accolade of

"Scotland's Most Popular Restaurant"

We trust you will enjoy your visit or stay with us at "The Hungry Monk" and look forward to welcoming you again.

If you require any further information please ask for our Duty Manager.
